To an outsider, THE JEB '69 would have little significance—a meaningless collection of pictures. But to us it represents a heritage we often scorn but would never forfeit. In these pages you will find a year's life. The whole story isn't here, only fragments to provoke a remembrance.

The time for remembering is not 1969; what will be the past is still the present. But when we are distant in time and place, this volume will provide us with pleasure, perhaps with nostalgia, but always with a memory . . .

soul — that which sets man apart from other beings
that which sets man apart
from man
no less true in a high school than in other facets of life we come, all seeking we remain, trying to find the answers to a multitude of questions we depart, some having found others still seeking but we all are enriched
in our knowledge
in our understanding in our living
by our own diligence
by the dedication of others
we go forward
to project our soul
for the betterment of all we encounter

the academic soul — leading the student in his quest for knowledge as he explores, he discovers he establishes the social soul —
leading the student as he seeks enjoyment, laughter
and companionship
with those around him
in ever changing associations
the spiritual soul — leading the student as he acknowledges a Greater Being a Greater Soul than his own
as the essence of life

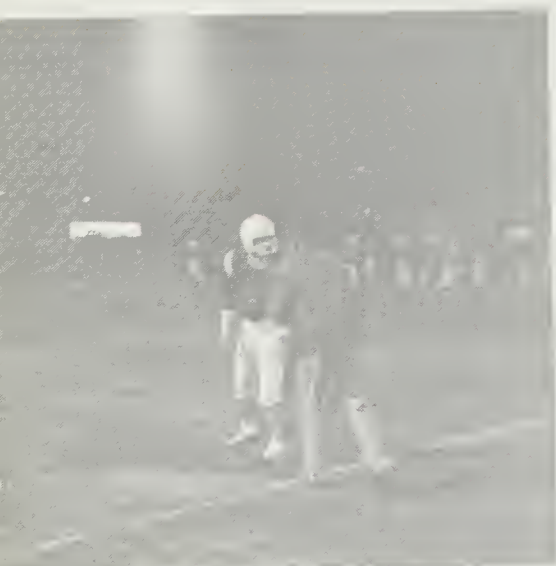

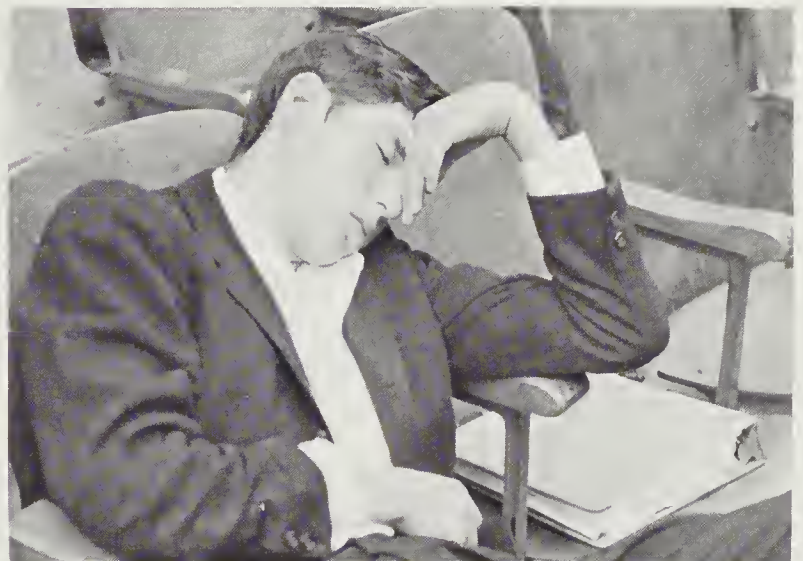

a quiz, a smile, an explanation
 a duty well executed
 an unbelievable question
 an amazing answer
 they offer their knowledge while boosting our morale
 they give of their experience while guiding our activities
 each an individual with unique and diversified qualities
 each possessing dedication to a cause
 a belief
 an entity
 each guided by sincerity for a purpose
 providing ready counsel to direct us from fundamentalism to new heights of creativity freely giving direction to aid adjustment
 they present, we partake
 their intellect — our future

Coach Hudson takes an active part in his physical education classes showing 'How it's done'.

The objective of an administration is to open the way of learning for each of the students whom they are guiding, as every new day brings new trials, new frustrations, and new attainments. At Stuart High School, the students are presented a wonderful opportunity to encounter and overcome these challenges because our teachers not only spend many hours preparing their means of daily instruction, but also give much time offering help and advice to the students by sponsoring extra-curricular organizations and coaching various sports teams.

The faculty at Stuart High School strives through many broad curricula and a strong guidance program to give each student the best background for his individual needs. Four basic programs are offered: vocational, commercial, college preparatory, and general. By means of individual planning and counselling, the program has each separate student at its focal point.

Individual attention is given to every student who

Because those who have been before us have put forth effort and learned; because they have not hidden their light, but have shared their enlightenment, we have at least become informed, though not educated in the fullest sense, so that we may continue to learn and may begin to share our discoveries with others.

Because it is we who must learn in order to teach others, we feel that we are very fortunate in having such an outstanding staff of instructors. They have sought to expose us to a necessary nucleus of facts and to stimulate us to thoughts and discoveries of our own. When we have not understood, they have patiently reasoned with us.

The administration and faculty are assisted by the teachers' aides. They perform secretarial duties to give teachers more time for instructing.

a school, as a unit, now dissolving into classes, ever resolving toward that most important the individual each one possessing fears, frustrations, and faults
but also possessing a desire for fulfillment of mind
a hope for enrichment
in all facets of life
an empowering wish to stick it out the decision of a lifetime
a climb to the mount of idealism
a descent to the valley of reality it isn't as long as it has been nevertheless;
a cloud of question still prevails
but with diligence we pursue we confront, we advance
all the while weaving
the formation of a web of memories ever to be a part of our past our present
and of ourselves

In Student Affairs

The Student Council is a student governing body which serves as the executive body of the SCA. The council rules in student affairs and charters all clubs on campus. The members, who are chosen by the student body, are responsible for representing the students' interests in various school activities. Participation in school elections and the work of the the council provide valuable experience in democratic processes.

The SCA has many purposes, among which are: to unite the student body for a more wholesome school life, and to promote loyalty to the school.

In order to keep in harmony with the times, a group from the council met with other student leaders at Radford College last summer. While at the conference, the representatives attended classes to prepare for the task which awaited them. These classes were held on every phase of SCA work and student involvement. Problems of fictitious schools were discussed and solutions suggested as an exercise in student self-government.

The social life of the school is also promoted by the SCA as the council sponsors the annual Miss SHS pageant in November and Homecoming in January.

The 4-H Clubs are a part of the Virginia Agricultural Extension Service. The purpose of 4-H is stated in the pledge: development of mind and body for a more worthwhile life.

The Stuart 4-H Clubs are represented at the annual Virginia 4-H Club Conference on the campus of V.P.I., the highlight of which is the tapping for membership in the Virginia All-Star chapter.

Betas Subscribe Self To Service In Scholarship

President, Katie Key; Vice President, Brenda Smart; Secretary, Lydia Adkins; Treasurer, Roger Beasley; Reporter, Darlene Thomas.

The Beta Club, the only honor society of Stuart High School, awards membership to students who excel in scholarship, leadership, and citizenship. Membership is restricted to sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

New members are tapped and then inducted into the club during open assemblies.

The object of this chapter is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, and to encourage the development of character in all students of Stuart High School.

An important club project is the presentation of achievement pins to non-Betas.

Contributors To Athletics Noted By Monogram

Reporter, Gary Nowlin; Treasurer, Steve Hazlewood; Secretary, Beverly Rogers; Vice President, Barry Taylor; President, Patsy Waller.

Composed of athletic lettermen, members of the varsity cheer squad, and managers of the varsity teams, the Monogram Club has a two-fold purpose: to stimulate interest in sports, and to recognize athletic ability.

This year the constitution of the Monogram Club was revised, setting new standards of membership and providing an amendment allowing football players to letter.

To raise funds, members sold concessions at basketball games. The money raised was used to provide athletic equipment, to buy trophies and letters, and to finance the annual picnic in the spring.

FHAers learn practical methods of housekeeping.

The FHA is the national organization for girls who are students of home economics in junior and senior high schools. The clubs' colors, red and white, are symbolic representations of youth—youth which has courage and determination to succeed, but which also has innocence and purity of spirit. The motto, "Toward New Horizons", expresses the purpose of the organization, that of learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better in the future.

The Stuart High School chapter of Future Homemakers of America has one hundred three members. Each of these girls is taking or has taken a course in home economics and has been admitted to the organization by vote of its members. The club promotes many service projects in addition to serving at school functions and performs many tasks for other departments of the school.

The club is active throughout the year sponsoring the annual Mother-Daughter banquet in the early spring and observing National Future Homemakers of America week in early April.

Library Club Aids Students; Promotes Good Literature

President, Gary Vipperman; Vice President, Carl Handy; Secretary, Ann Goad; Treasurer, Wayne Craig; Reporter, Hassel Handy.

The Library Club is of service to Stuart High School by training its members in the art of processing, shelving, and checking out books.

Its members have many demanding responsibilities, among which are: to learn to use the library to the fullest extent, to encourage others to do likewise; to learn what materials are available and where they are found, to improve library service, and to set a good example of good library conduct by their behavior.

The Projectionist Club was formed this year under the auspices of the Library Club to aid in the use of audio-visual equipment.

A relatively new organization at Stuart High School is the Student Guidance Committee.

Members work with the principal and guidance director in an attempt to maintain a line of communication between the students and the Guidance Department.

The primary duty of its members is to keep students in homerooms informed about colleges, guidance programs, and tests required of the students. Members are not solely concerned with college programs, for they seek to stimulate a vocational interest in those who are not college bound.

S H S Pep Club Backs Wildcats, Inflates Spirits

President, Billy Doss; Vice President, Patricia Foddrell; Secretary, Melissa Ross; Treasurer, Ann Dalton; Reporter, Bobby Smith; Historian, Kathy Rogers.

The Stuart High School Pep Club is an organization of students who encourage involvement in our athletic program. By supporting the athletic teams, the Pep Club provides a nucleus for our fine sportsmanship.

The Pep Club members promote school spirit by making posters for all of the ballgames, learning cheers, and sponsoring a sportsmanship campaign.

Members provide extra support for the Wildcats by sitting in a body at pep rallies and ballgames.

By drawing posters, Pep Club helps outline school spirit.

A New Section Yearbook Staff As Twentieth Edition

When planning began for THE JEB '69, the staff studied the ratings, criticisms, and praises of last year's book from the North Carolina Press Institute. It was decided to attempt to stay within their suggested guidelines without sacrificing or compromising the vitality of the yearbook. It was the opinion of the staff that the people involved are the most important feature of Stuart High School. That is why we, THE JEB staff, have sought a new approach to this book — to capture the human elements involved.

THE JEB '69 is different. It required an efficient and hard-working staff, many hours of thought, and much determination.

Through the use of new materials, new photographic processes, and the addition of an entire section on academics, THE JEB has been expanded and refined in a continuing effort to improve.

Lovely Susan Handy
Chosen Miss SHS

"Love is Blue" was the theme of the 1969 beauty pageant. The pageant, under sponsorship of the S.C.A., was one of the most successful in its history.

Susan Handy, a freshman, was crowned Miss Stuart High of 1969. Sherry Hughes, a sophomore, was runner-up. The remaining finalists were: Susan Rakes, Regina Odell, Debbie Gilbert, and Glynda Reed.

Becky Williams, the senior class candidate, was elected Miss JEB of 1969. The election is sponsored annually by the JEB Staff. Each student who purchased an annual was allowed to vote for one of the five candidates nominated by each class.

Stuart High is proud to boast of the many students who have excelled this year. Not only do these accomplishments bring recognition to our school, but they give the students self-confidence.

The F.F.A. Sweetheart candidates are nominated by the members of the F.F.A. The student body then votes on the girls from which one is chosen F. F.A. Sweetheart.

The DAR Good Citizenship award was presented to the senior who had most outstandingly displayed good citizenship qualities. The faculty conscientiously voted on the student whom they thought could best represent the school in this respect.

Girls' and Boys' State Representatives, chosen annually by local civic organizations, attended sessions at Radford College and the College of William and Mary held during the summer. During their stay, they studied the mechanics of our government on local and state levels.

Honor Graduates

1969

Leadership, scholarship, and citizenship exhibited by students is an important phase in the preparation for adulthood.

Six members of the Class of 1969 were selected by the faculty as the "1969 Honor Graduates." Those chosen were Brenda Smart and Steve Hazlewood, Citizenship; Lydia Adkins and Paul Richardson, Scholarship; and Jane Hudson and Murray West, Leadership.

In making their selection, the faculty judged the students on their academic average, their active leadership and service, and their ability and willingness to cooperate with the faculty and students.

The JEB Staff wishes to thank the faculty for its part in choosing these students and to extend to the "Honor Graduates" of the Class of '69 our sincere congratulations.

Special Features

Aside from the regular routine at Stuart High School, other interesting activities and programs are frequently scheduled for the enjoyment and benefit of the students.

This year Stuart High School was represented on WDBJ's KLASROOM KWIZ for the first time. The three contestants, sponsored by the Beta Club, made a fine showing as they appeared on the program for four consecutive weeks.

The annual Hi-Y Christmas assembly presented both aspects of Christmas as Reverend Jim Brackett addressed the student body with an inspiring Yuletide message. Following his brief sermon, members of the student body and faculty enacted an amusing skit.

We were also privileged to have with us a couple who presented an educational music program featuring many of the stringed instruments.

To the setting provided by the juniors, students and faculty members dined within the mystic atmosphere of "Treasure Island." As the guests came ashore on that warm April night, they discovered that the cafeteria had been transformed into a sandy island.

Upper-classmen, especially Chairman Katie Key and committee members, who went all-out to make the banquet the brilliant success it was, will long remember those blissful hours.

Homecoming Night For The Wildcats Brings Victories

Excitement, the spirit of competition, and gaiety dominated Homecoming '69 at Stuart High School.

A capacity crowd was present to witness the mighty Wildcats march on to victory against the Woolwine Warriors. In the preliminary game, the girls opened their regular season of play by stomping the Woolwine girls with a 52-23 victory.

Highlighting the activities of the evening was the crowning of Homecoming Queen, Cheryl McGrady. Escorted by Doug Mills, Miss McGrady received the crown from Mr. Woods.

The candidates were nominated by the members of the boys' Varsity basketball team. The names of the girls were announced to the student body, who voted by secret ballot on the day of the game.

The students, who elected Cheryl as Queen, presented her with a trophy, a dozen red roses, and a warm round of applause.

Members of her court were: Claire Cox escorted by Bob Elder, Kathy Ray escorted by Rodney Martin, Becky Williams escorted by Gary Nowlin, Katie Key escorted by Jimmy Edwards, Jane Hudson escorted by Ricky Hudson, and Nancy Adams escorted by Eddie Wood.

Tension mounted for candidates and escorts near half-time.

Mr. Woods presents Cheryl with trophy and roses.

Under the leadership of a new football mentor, Steve Hudson, the Wildcats compiled a record of 4 wins and 5 losses in their second season.

After a 20-7 opening victory over Hillsville, the squad was crushed 44-7 by North Stokes as Stuart was outmanned in its first varsity encounter.

In the only home game of the season, the 'cats returned to the win column with a 28-7 rout of Holmes. The next game was a tough defensive battle as Drewry Mason edged Stuart 6-0.

Stuart upped its record to 3-2 with a 33-6 blitzing of the Bassett Bengals. The Buffaloes of Floyd were next to fall to the streaking Wildcats as Stuart romped to a 48-0 victory.

Richard Spencer and Clayton Hamm carried for over 600 yards each and quarterback Mike Curry completed passes in excess of 300 yards to lead the Wildcats' stunning offense.

Spencer's Scoring Power Pushes 'Cats Past Spartans, Cardinals, And Cavaliers

After a slow start in which the Wildcats managed to win only one of their first five games, the team began to put their offense and defense together with a 76-43 victory over the Warriors of Woolwine and a 99-82 triumph over Blue Ridge.

In the next encounter, Cobbler's 'cats faced the Rebels of Hardin Reynolds. The height and board strength of the '68 state champions proved too great however, as Stuart fell by a 50-34 count.

The Wildcats roared back with cool, heads up play during the last half of the season to win seven while losing only to the Reynolds Rebels once again. This stretch drive was led on offense by Richard "Shotgun" Spencer whose 24.2 per game average placed him third in the district and sixth in the state scoring race. Top man on defense was Steve Hazelwood who consistently held the opposition's leading scorer far below his average. Coming through steadily on the front line were seniors Bill Goad and Preston Martin, while the backcourt was manned by Mike Curry and Terry Martin. Providing good depth in reserve roles, as Coach Cobbler kept fresh men in the game, were juniors Bill Cox, Clayton Hamm, and Richard Hazelwood along with soph Roger Hopkins.

Girls Fly By Foes Using Fast Break; Tighten Defense To Take District Title

The girls' varsity basketball team had a tremendous season of eight wins and two losses. The squad became the first team to grab the top rung on the district ladder since 1958. Long practices and hard work paid off as the girls raced from victory to victory.

The Wildcats opened their season by stunning defending champs Woolwine Warriors 52-23. Mary Alice Byers and Katie Key led the way with 17 points each.

The victory string continued as they played their toughest opposition, Blue Ridge and Hardin Reynolds. In the home victory over the Bulldogs, the Wildcats shot 60%. Meeting the Rebellettes at Critz, they hustled to a ten point margin over Hardin Reynolds.

The second string had its chance to shine when every team member participated in the 48-10 triumph over the Meadows of Dan Cardinals.

In the rematch with Woolwine, the Wildcats were again tops by a 42-20 count. They were led by Katie Key's 13 points and Patsy Waller's even dozen. Facing a man to man defense, the Stuart six was surprised 44-36 on their home floor by the Rebellettes.

In another home encounter, the Wildcats returned to the win column with a 37-11 victory over Meadows of Dan, headed by Rebecca East's 15 points. On the road again, the girls were upset 28-25 by Blue Ridge in their last regular season game.

Managers Nancy and Wanda keep charts for girls' games.

Coach Hudson's squad showed strength, skill, and stamina in victories over such formidable outside foes as North Stokes and Chatham.

A strong first five plus a very valuable sixth man provided a nucleus for a successful season. The six men were Jerome Foddrell, Lee Hill, Ronnie Haley, Carl Handy, James Pullins, and Jeff Wigington.

Jerome was the top rebounder for the baby 'cats while Ronnie served as defensive specialist by guarding the top opposing scorer. Lee, Carl, and James were the big offensive threats for the team.

In victory or defeat, the fourteen girls who make up the varsity and junior varsity cheerleading squads injected a great amount of pep and spirit into the fans at both pep rallies and games this year. Under the guidance of Miss Jane Hart, they have given much time and effort to acquire precision motions and learn new cheers. Only these girls know what cheerleading really requires— long hours of practice, leading fans in rain, snow, and in overcrowded gyms, and boosting the morale of students and teams when faced with defeat.

A new team of cheerleaders was formed this year. These sub-freshmen and freshmen girls have added much enthusiasm to junior varsity games.

Diamondmen Sweep Successful Season; Smother Opponents

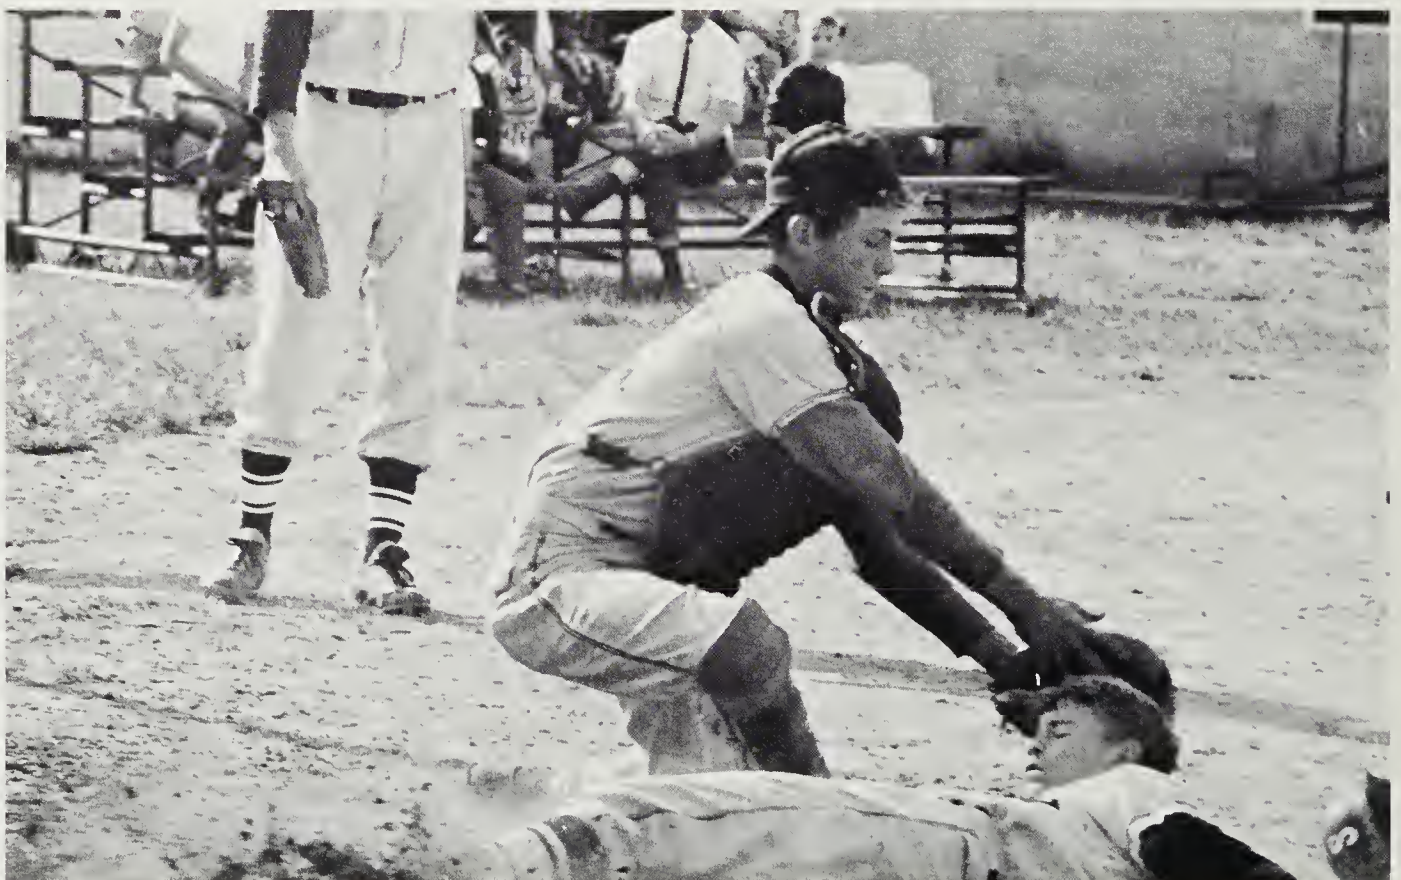

The Stuart baseball team had another outstanding season in the spring of 1968 as the stickmen lost only to Woodlawn while winning eleven games. Much of the success of the team can be attributed to Coach J. E. Cobbler. Under his guidance the Stuart nine stressed the fundamentals of baseball, and applied them in game situations to bring Stuart's sixth winning season.

Due to a lack of long ball punch the Wildcats relied on their pitching, fielding, and base running which provided 130 runs in 13 games while holding the opposition to 42. Wildcat moundmen struck out an average of 13 men per game. Never did the Stuart pitching corps allow more than six hits in a seven inning match which they won.

Leading the attack for the team was top batter Muarry West who had a .586 batting average.

Another of the Wildcat's outstanding players, catcher Steve Hazlewood, was selected last spring to play for the Martinsville Oilers of the Connie Mack League.

Terry Martin slides into homeplate in the bottom of the 4th inning against the Woolwine Warriors.

SECOND ROW: Darrell Bowling, Manager, Clayton Hamm, Nathan Martin, J. C. Joyce, Barry Taylor, Mike Curry, Bill Goad, Ronnie Haley, Scorekeeper.

Thinclads Thrash Foes

Led by several outstanding seniors, the Wildcat track team of 1968 won their fourth straight district championship. Although facing a tough schedule against area powers including Martinsville, Drewry Mason, North Stokes, Franklin County, Floyd County, and Morehead, the squad clearly dominated all their meets.

Practicing every afternoon, the team quickly developed superior speed in sprints, endurance and timing in the relays, and strength and depth in the field events. Enroute to the district meet, which Stuart won 115-3-1 over Woolwine and Meadows of Dan, the Wildcats set new records for District 'R' in every event.

Under the leadership of Coach Pete Walker, the Wildcats progressed to the regional title and qualified 16 boys for the state meet. In this final step, the team place second over all against squads from schools across the state.

Despite the fact that this year's team lacks much of the talent and experience of last year's squad, an abundance of capable and eager underclassmen promise another successful season as Coach Steve Hudson takes over the thinclads for 1969.

Charles Wright, Gary Nowlin, Kenneth Correll, Frank Willard, Frankie Nowlin, Manager, Steve Hudson, Coach.

With apparent ease, Steve Lawson executes perfect form in his specialty—the low hurdles.

a beginning, a starting point from which to ever progress building solidly on a strong foundation the planting of a germ of curiosity and wonder causing each to explore the world which he will inhabit ability, training, experience but most of all understanding contributed by those whose work will be forever visible in the molding of character
as a firm background
from which to face
a life which will be fuller, richer
and more enjoyable
because of patient listening because of earnest teaching because of the transformation undergone through education

Mrs. Jane Linker, who as our personal relations contact kept us in contact with the production of our book.

Mrs. Jessie Key, who allowed us to invade her home and refrigerator in our never ending search for pictures.

Mrs. Jessie Vernon, who always knew what our balance was when we seemed to have lost it.

Bill Sater and Clarence Key, who provided us with many of our sports shots when we were in a pinch.

Mr. Robert P. Woods, who constantly backed us in behalf of the school and encouraged our efforts.

The Advertisers and Boosters, found on preceding pages, who provided financial backing for this student project.

The Faculty and Students of SHS, who provided the conversation, action, and inspiration for the ideas found in this book, and without whose cooperation it would have been an impossible task.
